

CASEY BEASLEY

POSITION:

Executive Vice President/
Development
Kemp Properties, Inc.

EDUCATION:

Texas A&M University
College Station, Texas
Agriculture Economics – 1984

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Casey Beasley has over 20 years experience in commercial real estate including development, brokerage, leasing, property management and construction management. Casey has leased over 3 million square feet and been involved in numerous development and re-development projects throughout Austin.

Casey began his real estate career in Austin in 1986 working for the State of Texas Lease Office. In 1990, Casey moved into the private sector and spent many years redeveloping office buildings in the Central Business District, including 823 Congress (old First City Center), Perry-Brooks Building, Austin Centre, Scarbrough Building and Littlefield Building. Casey originally began working for Dick Kemp in 1993, left for a brief period, and returned in 2004 focusing on new development projects and acquisitions.

LICENSE:

Texas Real Estate Brokers License